

Lonesome Pine Regional Library

JANUARY — MARCH 2011

LIBRARY UPDATE

VOLUME 4, ISSUE 1

Download eBooks, AudioBooks, Music & Video Anytime, Anywhere!

Did Santa bring you a new eBook reader, an mp3 player, or maybe a new mobile device? Lonesome Pine Regional Library is excited to bring joy into your New Year by going live with our digital library collection, to be unveiled Monday, January 3. We are pleased to offer you best-selling and classic audiobooks, eBooks, music, and video available 24/7 from our website, www.lprlibrary.org.

You can browse the collection, check out with your library card, and download to PC, Mac®, and many mobile devices. To get started, you will need to install free software.

For audiobooks, music, and video: Over-

Drive® Media Console™. To read eBooks, you'll need

Adobe® Digital Editions. Titles can be enjoyed immediately or transferred to a variety of devices, including iPod®, Sony® Reader™, and many others. Some audio titles can also be burned to CD to listen on-the-go. Titles will automatically expire at the end of the lending period. There are no late fees!

With hundreds of popular fiction and non-fiction titles to choose from, the new collection is guaranteed to have something for everyone. You can download best-selling novels, well-known classics, self-improvement guides, and much more. Enjoy thrillers, such as Grisham's bestseller, The Confession, and Harlan Coben's, Caught. You'll also find favorite romance and mystery titles, among several other genre collections.

Non-fiction lovers will enjoy a variety of titles, from biographies like, Reading Jackie and Colonel Roosevelt, to self-help guides, Master Your Metabolism and Rachael Ray's Look + Cook.

There's something for all ages and interests, including graphic novels for teens and the fan favorite, Glee: The Beginning.

Younger library lovers will enjoy their classic favorites, from The Cat in the Hat, to Nancy Drew mysteries, and various story collections.

This new service, powered by OverDrive, is free with your library card. To get started downloading audiobooks, eBooks, and more, visit www.lprlibrary.org.

When the Library Lights Go Out ... And, More Children's News!!

Have you ever wondered what happens When The Library Lights Go Out? Come join us for a pajama party storytime featuring Megan McDonald's whimsical look into the antics of stuffed animals who go wild and crazy in the library — after hours, that is! Youngsters may dress in favorite jammies, bring two stuffed animals, one to snuggle and one to leave over for the “stuffed animal sleepover!” Cameras will capture the animals as they frolic in the library. Contact your local library for more details and program times!

Our two-year-olds are so Terribly Terrific, we're adding a second weekly ToddlerTime session beginning in January!

Winter Reading Program, 2011, featuring Jan Brett's “Hedgie” is coming soon to Lonesome Pine. Dates and times available at your local library.

In loving memory of Teddie Reasor Arnold, a series of special children's programs will soon be coming to the C. Bascom Slemp Memorial Library. “Teddie's Treasures” will feature a variety of special performances, including science programs, puppet shows, plays, musicals, author and illustrator visits, and more — all to the delight of youngsters and their families. On behalf of the children and families we serve, the Lonesome Pine Regional Library Board of Trustees extends sincere appreciation to Mr. Dave Arnold and his family for bringing Teddie's Treasures to Big Stone Gap, Teddies beloved home town.

Help Your Library Save Money and GO GREEN

Don't have an online account? Signing up is easy! Just go to www.lprlibrary.org. Click on “My Account” then “Edit Account.” You'll need your library card and PIN to sign up.

You can help Lonesome Pine Regional Library save money and the environment. When you provide us with your email address, you'll help us cut the costs of paper, printing and postage. When we send you reserve and overdue notices electronically, rather than in a mailed letter, we can spend more money on books, DVDs, programs and services.

You'll need your library card, PIN, and an email address to use an online account (“My Account”). So why not get started now? If you already use “My Account,” choose “Edit Account” to check your current email address and make any needed changes or corrections.

Don't have an email address? Sign up for a free account at www.google.com (Gmail), www.yahoo.com (Yahoo mail), or www.msn.com (Hotmail.) If you need help, ask any of our library staff for assistance. You can use our free computers to check your emails, too.

Lonesome Pine does not sell or give your email address to another party.
